Thank you for your letter of 1 August to Mr. Dulles regarding the interest of Mr. Morris E. Nelson in having us consider a tract in Prince George's County as a possible site for the new CIA headquarters installation.

You can be assured that if there is any change of our present plans as to the location of the new CIA building, we will be glad to consider Mr. Nelson's tract along with other sites which have been suggested.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely,
